EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE POSITION STATEMENTS

The request for extension of time in the above-referenced case is granted.¹ The due date for the receipt in Washington, D.C. of Statement of Position with respect to the issues raised by the Court's remand is extended to September 12, 2016. This extension of time applies to all parties.

¹ Please note that the NLRB's Rules and Regulations Section 102.111(b) states that "[r]equests for extensions of time filed within three days of the due date must be grounded upon circumstances not reasonably foreseeable in advance." The due date for position statement was Friday, July 29, 2016 and the request for an extension of time was filed on Thursday, July 28, 2016, which is only one business day prior to the document's due date. Despite being filed within three days of the due date, the request for extension of time did not set forth why the need for the extension was "not reasonably foreseeable in advance." However, given that the need for the extension is due to the parties' efforts to resolve this matter, and good reason has been provided for the need for the extension of time, we will allow the extension.
